THE CHAMPIONS.

Three New York Club Again Captures the League Pennant by a Very Close Margin.

Boston Gets Second Place, Chicago the Third and Philadelphia the Fourth.

The Cleveland Batteries Away Down at the Bottom—Good Races on Several Eastern Tracks.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 5.—Much to the gratification of Cleveland, New York won today's game, and the pennant. Score—Cleveland, 3; New York, 5. The batteries were, for Cleveland, Gruber and Sutcliffe; for New York, Keefe and Ewing.

The New York ball players are in an exceedingly happy frame of mind to-night, for to day's game decided the league pennant belongs to them. They left for New York at midnight in a special car, in which was a banner bearing the words: "The New Yorks, the winners of the National league pennant." The close of the league season to-night leaves the clubs in the following order in the race: New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Washington.

TOOK SECOND PLACE.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 5.—The inability to do anything with Gavilan's delivery today spoiled Boston's slim hopes of the pennant. When the bulletin board announced that New York was winning at Cleveland, their energy subsided, and they finished the game in a listless way. The home team were playing for fifth place, and got it. Their fielding was superb. Bennett split his finger in the third inning and retired. Attendance, 4,500. Score—Pittsburgh, 6; Boston, 1. The batteries were for Pittsburgh, Gavilan and Carroll; for Boston, Clarkson, Bennett and Kelly.

TOOK THIRD PLACE.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Chicago took third place in the league race to-day by beating Philadelphia in the last game of the season. It was a pitchers' contest and finely contested throughout. Attendance, 2,500. Score—Chicago, 3; Philadelphia, 2. The batteries were: For Chicago, Hutchinson and Darling; for Philadelphia, Sowers and Clements.

THE THIRD STRAIGHT.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 5.—The Hoosiers batted young Keefe at will to-day, and consequently ended the season by taking the third straight game from the senators. Keefe was wild but received fine support. Neckbecker of Burlington, caught the first two innings and then retired on account of an injured finger. Score—Indianapolis, 15; Washington, 6. The batteries were for Indianapolis, Ruse, Sommers and Neckbecker; for Washington, Keefe and Riddies.

Association Games.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5.—Baltimore 11; Columbus 10. At Cincinnati—Cincinnati 8; Louisville 1. At St. Louis—St. Louis 7; Kansas City 2. At Brooklyn—Brooklyn 2; Athletics 10.

Races at Latonia.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 5.—The track was very fast and attendance large. The only unpleasant feature was an accident in the third race, in which three jockeys were more or less injured. Magee, the one who was the worst injured, is still unconscious at 6 p. m. and Brown is thought to be out of danger.

Three years old and upwards, three-quarters of a mile—Censor won, Ronoune second, Governor Ross third. Time, 1:18. Three-year-olds and upwards, three-quarters of a mile—Irish Dan won, Poll Mell second, Dutchman third. Time, 1:17 1/4.

Three-year-olds and upwards, one mile—Clamor came in first in the finish, a length in front of Cora Fisher. Clamor, however, was disqualified on account of a foul and Cora Fisher was given first place, winning Ways second, Deer Lodge third. Time, 1:44 1/4.

Two-year-olds, colts and geldings, five furlongs—W. G. Morris won, Fakir second, Milton third. Time, 1:04 1/4. Three-year-olds and upwards, nine furlongs—Woodcraft won, Longlight second, Nevada third. Time, 1:56 1/4.

Three hundred dollar stakes, two-year-old fillies, three-quarters of a mile—Enzlish Lady won, Sis Ole second, Dilemma third. Time, 1:17.

Morris Park Races.

MORRIS PARK, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Record stakes, five furlongs—George won, Reporter second, Geraldine third. Time, 1:01 1/4.

Five furlongs—Fryers won, Minute second, Ilma B. third. Time, 1:01 1/4.

Trial stakes, one and one-fourth of a mile—Buddhist won in 2:10 1/4, Longstreet second, Castaway third. No time.

Country club handicap, one and one-half of a mile—Levinia Bell first, Taragon second, Dumberine third. Time, 2:10 1/4. Maiden 2 year-olds, three-fourths of a mile—Fleissie won, Golden Horn second, Kingsown third. Time, 1:15 1/4. Seven furlongs—Lattie won, King Idle second, Keynote third. Time, 1:28 1/4.

Jerome Park Races.

JEROME PARK, Oct. 5.—The attendance was the largest of the meeting. One mile and a sixteenth—Salvator won in 1:50 1/4, Hyperion and Ganymede a dead heat for second.

Fourteen hundred yards, for two-year-olds—Judge Morrow won, Tournament second, Magistrate third. Time, 1:24. One mile—Raceland won in 1:45 1/4, Badge second, Volunteer third.

Five furlongs—Bradford won in 1:30, Adolph second, Drumstick third. One and one-fourth of a mile—Firenzli walked over the course.

One mile and a sixteenth—Brussels won, Latreba second, Elgin third. Time, 1:54 1/4.

Another Strike Feared.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Laborers in a wool warehouse have struck owing to preference given blacklegs. It is feared the strike will spread.

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY.

How the Deal is Regarded in Northern Montana.

GREAT FALLS, Oct. 5.—[Special to the Independent.]—The important deal by which the Manitoba railway becomes absorbed in a system to be known as the Great Northern railway excites comment here. It is said on good authority that the deal insures the speedy construction of the Pacific extension from here to the coast. The route will probably be up the Sun River valley and thence over the main range of the Rockies. The extension may be built direct to the coast, or may connect with some railroad that is extending eastward. It is also stated that James J. Hill will continue in control as heretofore, but he will have as associates powerful capitalists representing part of the allied interests.

Meanwhile the building of the railroad from here to the Barker and Neilhart mining regions will proceed actively. Donald Grant says that the entire route will be covered with teams next week. The outfit of Kirkendall of Helena, is expected tomorrow; outfits are also coming from Devil's Lake, Dakota, and other eastern places. The contractors are ready to keep up with the engineers, who are staking out the route. This, and all other Montana enterprises, such as the Montana Central, will profit by the Great Northern railway deal, which insures abundant capital for extensions and allies Montana with a powerful railroad system. The Great Falls & Canada railway from here to Letbridge will be about 210 miles long. It is expected to aid greatly in developing the Sweet Grass Hills mining region.

DEATH ON THE TRACK.

Two Men Killed in Missoula County and the Company Not to Blame.

MISSOULA, Oct. 5.—[Special to the Independent.]—Coroner N. J. Meyers returned to-day from Noyon, where he held an inquest on the body of George Stull, who was killed at that point a few days ago. Stull was a workman in one of the mills there and became drunk and lay down on the track. He was mangled almost beyond recognition.

While at Noyon the coroner was telegraphed that an unknown man had been killed by a train at Evaro. The inquest developed the fact that the man, an unknown, was stealing a ride on the trucks of a car, but had not got securely in his position when the train started up, severing his head from the body. He was buried at that point.

Company 1 of the National Guard of Montana leave here tomorrow for Fort Ellis to participate in the annual encampment of the Montana militia.

Fell Under a Train.

LIVINGSTON, Oct. 5.—[Special to the Independent.]—A man named Joseph Noble fell under a moving freight train last night in the Livingston yards, while attempting to steal a ride. The wheels passed over one leg, severing it from the body above the knee. His home is said to be in New York.

J. R. Nightingale, a painter residing in Riverside, received a dangerous wound in the thigh last night. He was passing from one room to another in his house, when his foot struck a shotgun, which fell and was discharged. The full charge of shot struck his thigh and ranged upwards. He is resting easily at this time and may recover.

HOW THE BANKS STAND.

The Reserve Under the Legal Limit for the First Time in Years.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The bank statement gives a specie decrease of $2,252,000. The banks now hold $1,668,000 less than the 25 per cent rule.

For the first time since the week following the May panic of 1884, the bank statement published shows the reserve held to be less than the 25 per cent of deposits required by the banking law. A year ago, with almost exactly the same amount of deposit, the banks held a surplus over the legal requirements of $11,417,500. The deficit is almost wholly caused by the drain of money to the west and south, where over $6,000,000 was shipped last week, and almost as much went in the weeks just preceding.

The Pacific Roads Investigation.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The committee to effect a settlement between the government and the Pacific roads held a preliminary meeting this afternoon to arrange the details of the work. "Our desire is to be reasonable with the companies," said Senator Hearst, "or at least mine is. If we can arrange to secure the debt in some way, and provide for its payment in twenty or fifty years, we shall be satisfied. The roads will not be sacrificed, though, under any circumstances, as we could not afford to stop the traffic of the country for even such a claim as this."

Flyers at Auction.

MORRIS PARK, Oct. 5.—Walter Grat's string of race horses were sold at auction to-day. Elkwood, who won the 1888 suburban, was bought by Mr. Kitten for $5,000. He has two splints and probably will never be sent to race again. It is understood Kitten will take him to Erdenheim stock farm for breeding purposes. Among the other horses sold was Pocatello, for $1,800; Middleton, $1,025; and a chestnut colt by Great Tom, $1,000. A number of youngsters from Milton Young's stock farm were also sold.

District Court.

The following suits were filed in the district court yesterday: Ida F. Rosenbaum vs. the Helena Street Railway company; damages. Benjamin F. Marsh vs. Benjamin C. Brooke; action on account.

VERY BADLY RATTLED.

The Republicans Continue to Claim Everything With Nothing in Sight.

Owing to the hoggliness of the republicans in claiming everything and refusing to give up bets on Power, the democrats have retaliated and will pay no bets until the official count is made. In the face of the returns the republicans claim the legislature and will continue to claim it until convinced of the error of their way, which will be within a few days. In the meantime there are threatened contests and a good deal of brag and bluster but it will end in time, and the ardent but misguided members of the g. o. p. will recognize the fact that it is not wise at all times to allow their malapert blood to surcharge their brains, and absorb what good grey matter they may possess.

The reported wild bluff of Thomas Cicero Power with $80,000 could not be traced to any reliable source, and it was intimated that if he made any such proposition he had a good sized tow line to his foil. It is probable that Mr. Power feels much safer with that amount in his inside pocket than he would if it were in the hands of a stakeholder. Mr. Toole's majority cannot be overcome that way.

The more reasonable of the sorely stricken brethren concede Toole's election, but ancient themselves with the oil of consolation every time they speak of Thomas Henry's majority. They still claim the legislature, however, and with significant shakes of their heads remark sentimentally, "We'll see."

The disaffection in the ranks of the faithful in Lewis and Clarke county is on the increase, and several members who have heretofore loved each other politically now refuse to speak as they pass by. "To be wroth with those we love doth work like madness in the soul," and those accused of treachery are getting madder and madder, and if the Journal does not let up the accused will go to writing cards for the press. The affliction will be borne for the sake of the racy developments.

Territorial Supreme Court.

The territorial supreme court met yesterday with Chief Justice Blake presiding and Justices Bach, DeWolfe and Liddell on the bench. A number of opinions were handed down as follows:

Pierre Wibaux vs. the Grinnell Stock company et al.; breach of contract; cause reversed and remanded to the district court with direction to overrule demurrer to the complaint. DeWolfe, a. j.

John Merrigan vs. Lydia J. English, enforcement of mechanic's lien; judgment of lower court affirmed. Opinion by Bach, a. j.

John M. Dutro vs. George S. and Clara Kennedy; cause reversed and remanded for a new trial. Opinion by Blake, c. j., Liddell concurring. Alice B. Benedict vs. James Spendthrift, sheriff of Yellowstone county; appeal; judgment reversed and cause remanded for trial; opinion by DeWolfe, a. j.; H. N. Blake, c. j., concurring.

William vs. Edgar S. Camp, et al.; appeal; judgment of lower court affirmed; opinion by DeWolfe, a. j.; H. N. Blake, c. j., concurring.

The Powder River Cattle company vs. the Board of commissioners of Custer county; judgment reversed.

Commissioners of Silver Bow county vs. Wm. H. Strumback; judgment of lower court reversed and cause remanded for trial, with directions to overrule demurrer and proceed in conformity with this opinion. Opinion by Blake, c. j.

U. J. vs. Silas F. King, appeal; order of court sustaining a motion for new trial affirmed. Opinion by Blake, a. j. George Budd, adm'r vs. T. C. Power; judgment of lower court affirmed. Opinion by Blake, c. j.

William H. Maddox vs. Geddis; appeal; judgment of the lower court affirmed with costs; opinion by Blake c. j.

Richard I. Kennon vs. John T. Gremer et al.; appeal; motion for new trial denied; opinion by Blake, c. j.

Territory of Montana vs. Reuben Pendry; new trial; judgment of lower court affirmed and new trial denied; opinion by Blake, c. j.

George Parrot vs. Mary Ungleberger; appeal; judgment appealed from reversed with costs to appellant. Opinion by Bach, a. j. Blake, c. j., concurs.

Fletcher Maddox vs. Wm. Rader and Wm. Gaddis; appeal; dissenting opinion by Associate Justice Liddell.

A Dance at Alhambra.

ALHAMBRA SPRINGS, Oct. 5.—[Special to the Independent.]—Alhambra was a scene of enjoyment and pleasure last evening. Shortly after 8 o'clock, the guests began to arrive to participate in a social dance given by Major Allen and M. Hoy. Dancing commenced at 9 p. m. and was continued until 12, when all responded to the welcome call of supper, which was an excellent repast. After supper, the merry-makers again returned to the spacious hall, and there, to the excellent music of Messrs. Majors and Mueller, and the excellent prompting and management of Helena's most able prompter, Mr. H. Branch Lyman. They skipped the light fantastic till the wee small hours of the morning, when they departed, fully intending to come again on Friday evening, Oct. 18, when there will be another ball given by the same gentlemen.

Army Vacancies Filled.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Three vacancies in the staff department of the army were filled to-day by the following appointments: Lieutenant George H. Hoyt, of the Eighteenth infantry, to be assistant quartermaster with the rank of captain; Lieutenant Henry B. Osmond, of the Third artillery, and General L. W. Alexander, of Iowa, to be commissaries of the subsistence department, with the rank of Captain.

Gen. Alexander enlisted in the Thirtieth Iowa Infantry in August, 1862; was appointed first lieutenant the following month and captain in September, 1863, and mustered out August 16, 1865, having been wounded in the engagement of Arkansas Post in January, 1863. He is now, and has been for the past seven years, adjutant-general and quartermaster-general of Iowa. His selection from civil life was strongly urged by the senators and representatives from Iowa. It is said that the fact that out of something over 500 officers on the general staff that but four of them are from Iowa, had strong influence in determining this appointment. Two of these are in the engineer corps, by virtue of their class standing, one in the medical department and one in the pay department.

FINAL FIGURES.

The Majorities for Governor and Congressman and How the First Legislature Will Stand.

Both Branches of the General Assembly to be Controlled by the Democrats.

Delayed Returns from Fergus Which Settle the Contest—Final Figures in Gallatin and Yellowstone.

Returns from Fergus county yesterday give Power, rep., for governor, 50 majority and Carter, rep., for congress, 150. These figures leave Toole's majority in the territory at 678, and Carter's at 1,055. The legislature stands 40 democrats and 31 republicans, as given in yesterday's INDEPENDENT. The election of Cardwell, dem., to the senate from Jefferson county, is now assured. There will be nine democrats and seven republicans in the senate and 31 democrats and 24 republicans in the house, thus giving the democrats a majority in each branch of the legislature.

Fergus and Cascade Results.

GREAT FALLS, Oct. 5.—[Special to the Independent.]—Returns from Fergus county show that Sullivan, dem., candidate for sheriff, has defeated Clary and Sanders. Dean, candidate for commissioner, may win. The vote on senator in fourteen precincts was: McNamara, dem., 605; Watson, rep., 457. The vote on representative in the same precincts was: Barrows, dem., 1519; Willard, dem., 459; Von Tobel, rep., 478; Walte, rep., 340. Later advices confirm the election of Barrows. The election of Senator McNamara is beyond all doubt. Power's majority in Fergus county is 50 and Carter's 52. The democrats elect two members of the legislature.

In Cascade county the situation is unchanged. The vote for Ringwald and Crosby continue in doubt; so is the contest for county commissioner, so far as regards Wegner, democrat, Benton, republican, is about 180 ahead of Leslie in Fergus and Cascade counties. The vote of Choteau will decide the contest for district judge. That vote has not been received here.

Majority in Gallatin.

The Bozeman Chronicle extra gives the following majorities of Gallatin county on the democratic ticket: Maginnis 115; Toole 183; Conrad 102; Brown 126; Pemberton 156; Collins 126; Fitzgerald 184; Russell 153; DeWolf 60; Armstrong 349; Bickford 181; Cope 170.

The Figures in Yellowstone.

BILLINGS, Oct. 5.—[Special to the Independent.]—In Yellowstone, the official returns give Power 400; Toole 281; Carter 415; Maginnis 295.

Theatrical Attractions.

Theatergoers will have an opportunity to see "Clicks" Monday and Tuesday nights. Tilson & Errols, the proprietors of this popular farcical comedy, have achieved success wherever their company has appeared. The plot is merely a thread on which to hang good specialty work, and the actors are all artists in their line. "Clicks" is to be followed by "The City Directory," a laughable comedy. There will be three performances, Friday night, Saturday night and Saturday matinee.

Kept Two Sets of Books.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. Oct. 5.—Dilman P. Robinson, the only son of Ex-President E. P. Robinson, of the Brown university, is an embezzler and a fugitive. He has been registered of the university for several years. The amount of the shortage is unknown. He kept two sets of books, one false and one true.

The Atchison Meeting.

Boston, Oct. 4.—The directors of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad met at 10 o'clock. This is undoubtedly the most important meeting since the organization. It is said it is very doubtful if the plan of reorganization will be given out before next week.
